LIFE LINES

OF THE WARM SPRINGS ROAD CHURCH OF CHRIST

November 1, 2015

DID GOD REALLY SAY WE COULD REACH THE WHOLE WORLD?

Evangelism, although almost every Christian knows that we ought to be doing it, is something that the vast majority of members of the church do not actually take an active part in. I believe it's because we beat ourselves before we ever get started.

There are somewhere around 7 billion people in the world and yet estimates say that there are only around 2 million members of the body of Christ. That's only about 0.029%!

That's 484 TIMES less than the number of people that will sign into their Facebook pages today!

And we see statistics like that and think, "There's no way that I can make a difference, much less that the church can reach the entire world."

But, what we don't realize is that God actually did say that we can reach the entire world. - Mark 16:15-16

Now, I do not believe my God will give me a command that I cannot follow. I know that He wants me to be saved (2 Peter 3:9), that He wants me to succeed in my faithfulness (Revelation 2:10), that He believes in Me (cf. John 15:16) and that He knew that His apostles would be able to complete the mission He gave them.

Since I am attempting to follow the commands that He gave them (Matthew 28:19-20) because they have passed on the responsibility to those of us walking in Christ today, then I know I can. I know we can. I know He can!

Did God really say that we can reach the whole world? Absolutely. In fact, an even smaller number of people have already proven to us that we can (Colossians 1:23)!

If they could do it back then, we can still do it today!
