BEST CITIZENS

President Teddy Roosevelt once noted, "When all is said, it is the mother only who is a better citizen than the soldier who fights for his country. The successful mother, the mother who does her part in rearing and training aright the boys and girls, who are to be the men and women of the next generation, is of greater use to the community, and occupies, if she only would realize it, a more honorable, as well as more important, position than any man in it. The mother is the one supreme asset of national life. She is more important, by far, than the successful statesman, or businessman, or artist, or scientist."

Roosevelt's statement reminded me of the old adage, "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." We need to continue to emphasize to our mothers how important their role is in our world (Proverbs 14:1).

Often the problems of our society are blamed on the absence of fathers. While this has clearly played a part in our nation's demise, we cannot overlook what the absence of mothers has done.

Mothers, thank you for the sacrifices you make for children. You are vital!
